

Important Dates and Deadlines

Fall 2011/Spring 2012

- July 22      Financial aid documentation and forms due in order to meet Fall tuition payment due date and ensure book vouchers will be available before school starts.
- Information received after this date may not be processed to meet payment deadlines. Options to retain registration include: payment in full and tuition payment plan. Students who have paid or paid partial payment will still be considered for financial assistance.*
- July 27      First tuition payment due for the Fall 2011 semester.
- (Consult the course schedule for additional registration and tuition due date information.)*
- August 1      Financial aid (grants/scholarships/student loans) recipients may begin requesting book vouchers for Fall 2011. Be sure you bring a copy of your schedule and picture ID.
- August 22      Fall Semester classes begin.
- September 9      Last day to defer books to financial aid for the fall semester
- September 13      Last day to apply for a student loan for the 1st disbursement the week of September 23rd. All necessary steps must be successfully completed to process the loan.
- September 23      Anticipated first mailing of Student Loan Checks for the fall semester.
You will receive your student loan in two installments. Your loan money must first be applied to pay for tuition, fees, bookstore charges and other school charges. If loan money remains, you'll receive the funds by check.
- October 7      Anticipated first mailing of Pell Check Refunds for the fall semester
- October 17      Online registration for the Spring 2012 semester begins
- October 21      Last day to apply for a student loan for the fall semester.
- October 24      In-person registration begins for Spring 2012 semester
- October 28      Last day to submit appeals for the Fall 2011 semester; includes SAP appeals, Special Circumstances, and Dependency Appeals
- November 3      Final loan check disbursements mailed
- November 30      First tuition payment due for the Spring 2012 semester. (Consult the course schedule for additional registration and tuition due date information.)

December 1    Financial aid documentation and forms due in order to meet Spring 2012 tuition payment due date and ensure book vouchers will be available before school starts.

Information received after this date may not be processed to meet payment deadlines. Options to retain registration include: payment in full and tuition payment plan. Students who have paid or paid partial payment will still be considered for financial assistance.

December 20    Academic progress reviewed for the Fall 2011 semester financial aid recipients.

Students who are not in compliance will be notified by mail of loss of financial aid beginning Spring 2012 semester. Students have the right to appeal termination of financial aid due to unsatisfactory academic progress.

December 22    The last date the Financial Aid Office can complete processing prior to the end of a semester.

Information submitted after a deadline will be reviewed but generally financial aid is no longer available for the semester.

---

2012

January 3        Financial aid (grants/scholarships/student loan) recipients may begin requesting book vouchers for the Spring 2012 semester. Be sure you bring a copy of your schedule and picture ID.

January 9        Spring 2012 classes start

January 27       Last day to defer books to financial aid for the spring semester.

January 31       Last day to apply for a student loan for the 1st disbursement the week of February 10th. All necessary steps must be successfully completed to process the loan.

February 10      Anticipated first mailing of Student Loan Checks for the spring semester.
You will receive your student loan in two installments. Your loan money must first be applied to pay for tuition, fees, bookstore charges and other school charges. If loan money remains, you'll receive the funds by check.

February 27      Anticipated first mailing of Pell Check Refunds for the spring semester.

March 16         Deadline for student loan applications for the spring semester.

March 28         Final loan check disbursements mailed.

- April 6 Last day to submit appeals for the Spring 2012 semester; includes SAP appeals, Special Circumstances, and Dependency Appeals
- May 9 First tuition payment due for the Summer 2012 semester.
- May 11 Financial aid documentation and forms due in order to meet Summer 2012 tuition payment due date and ensure book vouchers will be available before school starts.*
- Information received after this date may not be processed to meet payment deadlines. Options to retain registration include: payment in full and tuition payment plan. Students who have paid or paid partial payment will still be considered for financial assistance.*
- May 15 Academic progress reviewed for the Spring 2012 semester financial aid recipients.
- Students who are not in compliance will be notified by mail of loss of financial aid beginning Summer 2012 semester. Students have the right to appeal termination of financial aid due to unsatisfactory academic progress.*
- (Consult the course schedule for additional registration and tuition due date information.)*
- May 25 The last date the Financial Aid Office can complete processing prior to the end of a semester.
- Information submitted after a deadline will be reviewed but generally financial aid is no longer available for the semester.*
- May 29 Financial aid (grants/scholarships/student loans) recipients may begin requesting book vouchers for the Summer 2012 semester. Be sure you bring a copy of your schedule and picture ID.
- June 4 Summer 2012 classes start
- June 15 Last day to defer books to financial aid for the summer semester
- June 29 Last day to submit appeals for the Summer 2012 semester; includes SAP appeals, Special Circumstances, and Dependency Appeals
- July 30 The last date the Financial Aid Office can complete processing prior to the end of a semester.
- Information submitted after a deadline will be reviewed but generally financial aid is no longer available for the semester.*